To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to introduce the Indiana Dream Team (IDt), a faith-based residential treatment program for young adults. Organized as a non-profit ministry, IDt attacks the drug and crime environment with a faith-based rehabilitation environment that transforms lives.

You have to see it to believe it. The testimonies are compelling and the statistical evidence is convincing. This is a blessing, not only for the participants and their families, the Lashbrooks, and their dedicated staff; but for the communities that receive them.

Beyond the sacrifice and dedication of the Lashbrook family, IDt needs support to be sustained. I would like to presume to urge your personal support to sustain a ministry which is making a profound difference, one life at a time.

Sincerely,

Ralph M. Foley
State Representative
